CONSENT TO CONDEMNATION OF EXCESS LANDS

RW 9-11 (9/93)

* Print on District Letterhead
()
	(Date)
	Dist Co Route EA Parcel #
Dear	· -
This letter concerns the proposed	purchase of property by the Department of Transportation and owned by you. The State
oroposes to purchase, in addition to the designated as excess. That portion de The Department of Transportation consent and your refusal to consent we	purchase of property by the Department of Transportation and owned by you. The State is property required for the project, an additional protion of your property which we have ignated as excess is outlined in red on the attached map. requests that you consent to the purchase of the excess land. You are not required to I not be considered now or in the future as a waiver of your right to be compensated for the Sincerely, oroposes to purchase, in addition to the designated as excess. That portion de The Department of Transportation consent and your refusal to consent we	e property required for the project, an additional protion of your property which we have ignated as excess is outlined in red on the attached map. requests that you consent to the purchase of the excess land. You are not required to l not be considered now or in the future as a waiver of your right to be compensated for the
proposes to purchase, in addition to the designated as excess. That portion de The Department of Transportation consent and your refusal to consent we excess area.	e property required for the project, an additional protion of your property which we have ignated as excess is outlined in red on the attached map. requests that you consent to the purchase of the excess land. You are not required to l not be considered now or in the future as a waiver of your right to be compensated for th Sincerely, Right of Way Agent
Proposes to purchase, in addition to the designated as excess. That portion de The Department of Transportation consent and your refusal to consent we excess area. Attachment The undersigned consents to the State of the Stat	e property required for the project, an additional protion of your property which we have ignated as excess is outlined in red on the attached map. requests that you consent to the purchase of the excess land. You are not required to l not be considered now or in the future as a waiver of your right to be compensated for the Sincerely, Right of Way Agent
proposes to purchase, in addition to the designated as excess. That portion de The Department of Transportation consent and your refusal to consent we excess area. Attachment	e property required for the project, an additional protion of your property which we have ignated as excess is outlined in red on the attached map. requests that you consent to the purchase of the excess land. You are not required to I not be considered now or in the future as a waiver of your right to be compensated for th Sincerely, Right of Way Agent Office of Right of Way